

Barcelona, Spain

Climate

Mediterranean and sunny most of the year. Warm summers around 29 C cooled by a sea breeze, and mild winters near 14 C.

Best time to visit

May-June and September bring warm weather and beach days without peak crowds. July and August are hottest and busiest; the nightlife runs year-round.

Top attractions

Gaudi's Sagrada Familia, Park Guell, Casa Batllo and La Pedrera, the medieval Gothic Quarter, the La Rambla promenade, Barceloneta beach, and Camp Nou.

Food

Tapas, paella, jamon iberico, pa amb tomaquet, fresh seafood, and cava sparkling wine - best grazed through the stalls of La Boqueria market, with dinner served late.

Visa & safety

Generally safe but well known for pickpockets on La Rambla, the metro and the beach, so keep valuables secure. Spain is in the Schengen Area - check the current entry requirements for your nationality before travel.
