

Lisbon, Portugal

Climate

Mediterranean and one of Europe's sunniest capitals. Warm, dry summers with highs around 28 C; mild, wetter winters that rarely drop below 8 C.

Best time to visit

Spring (March-May) and early autumn (September-October) are ideal - warm weather with thinner crowds. July and August are the hottest and busiest.

Top attractions

Belem Tower and Jeronimos Monastery, the maze-like Alfama district below Sao Jorge Castle, a ride on historic Tram 28, the hilltop miradouros over the Tagus, and a day trip to the palaces of Sintra.

Food

Pasteis de nata custard tarts, bacalhau (salt cod) in countless forms, grilled sardines, fresh seafood, and a glass of ginjinha cherry liqueur or vinho verde.

Visa & safety

A very safe city; take normal big-city care with pickpockets on crowded trams and in tourist areas. Portugal is in the Schengen Area - check the current entry requirements for your nationality before you travel.
